There was a young fellow named Clyde,
Who was once at a funeral spied;
When asked who was dead,
He smilingly said,

The judgment of the Bath Circuit Court setting aside an anti-nuptial contract between James H. Maze, deceased, and his wife, Maria Maze, has just been affirmed by the Court of Appeals. By this decision the widow shares in a $20,000 estate, whereas the husband sought to cut her off without a cent.

MR. ROBERT MEANS.

The hardy and pioneer settlers of Maysville of over a half century ago are fast disappearing from amid the scenes of this life and passing over to that bourne from which no traveler ever returns.

This time the Grim Reaper has gathered to his fold Robert Means, another highly esteemed and venerable citizen, who peacefully passed away Saturday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at his home in East Second street, Fifth Ward, after an illness covering a period of over three years.

The deceased was born in Lewis county December 26th, 1825, and at the age of 17 years removed to this city, where he has spent 64 years of his useful and active life.

In September, 1850, he married Miss Minerva Shackelford, who, together with four children, survives him—Alvin Means of Birmingham, N. Y., George Means of this city, Mrs. Lloyd Watson of New York City, and Mrs. E. A. Powell of Norwood, Cincinnati.

He also leaves three brothers, James and William of Missouri and John Means of Illinois, and thirteen grandchildren.

He became a member of the Christian Church at an early age, and at the time of his death was its oldest communicant. He was a Mason and Knights Templar, and had served as Councilman from the Fifth Ward.

He was a partner with the late James H. Hall in the establishment of the plow works that has grown from an infant industry to the present large proportions of the Eagle Plow Works, in which he still retains an interest.

He was a kind and considerate husband, an affectionate father, a good neighbor and a most worthy citizen.

The funeral will take place this afternoon at 2 o'clock from the residence in East Second street, with services by Rev. Preston A. Cave of the Christian Church.

Interment in Maysville Cemetery.

THE Detroit News is authority for the statement that Justice HARLAN of the United States Supreme Court, is opposed to cold baths. Seventy, gigantic, healthy as a country boy, this gallant son of old Kentucky says: "I have never put cold water on my warm skin in my life."

THE big postal deficit is explained by the report of the Department that $5,000,000, worth of mail matter is carried under Government frank from Washington and that Uncle Sam has been paying the railroads $5,000,000 a year too much for carrying the mails under the present weighing contract.

UNDER the new service pension bill nearly $10,000,000 will be added to the National pension roll and is just so much more prosperity added to the circulating medium. Nearly $200,000 a year will come to Kentucky under the new bill. Let the flood of pension money flow, as the old vets are marching under the wire rapidly.

A REMEDY which has been applied for car shortage in New York might be extended to other parts of the country with advantage. NOT so slow is Cousin Bull. A device has been invented at Birmingham that will light lamps by clockwork. The invention is so nicely adjusted that the gas will be lighted at a different moment each day in the year, according to the varying seasons. The machine turns on the gas at night, lights it and turns it off in the morning. Once adjusted it will run for a whole year by simply winding the clockwork attachment once a week.—Louisville Herald.

AGAIN the Caleb Powers case is continued and CALEB remains in jail a living example of the violation of the right of every alleged criminal to have his day in court and a speedy adjudication of the charges made against him. POWERS' further incarceration in a county jail for a murder alleged to have occurred seven years ago can serve no purpose other than to satisfy the political revenge of a party and a machine now waxed so fat and sassy that nothing can hurt it.

THANKFUL

To my many friends and the public generally who have in the past extended to me such a liberal share of their patronage, which has helped so materially in making my business career in Maysville such a success: I want to assure all that I fully appreciate what they have done for me, and promise that I shall, by renewed efforts, endeavor to retain the confidence of the public by pursuing the same course of fair dealing and polite attention in the future as in the past and selling the very best goods at the most reasonable prices.

My stock of CANNED GOODS is unusually large and the quality of the very best.

The demand for PE-FECTION FLOUR is rapidly growing because it is beyond a doubt the very best Flour sold in Maysville or that can be made. It has no superior anywhere. The run on my fine Blended Coffees has been enormous and is constantly increasing. I am still selling these fine goods at 35c, 30c and 25c per pound, and if you want a strictly fancy high grade Mocha and Java, the finest that can be produced, don't fail to call for the famous "Barrington Hall" steel cut, sold only in one-pound airtight tins at 35c per pound. A fresh supply of fall catch Atlantic just in. If you want something extra try one of my fancy Blister Mops, heads and tails off.

A big invoice of very fine Premium Chinaware just in, a sample of which may be seen in my warehouse window. These goods I give to my CASH customers in redeeming tickets given out with their cash purchases. Until further notice DOUBLE TICKETS will be given with each cash purchase on SATURDAYS. By taking advantage of this proposition the purchaser will very soon accumulate enough tickets to secure a fine set of china FREE OF COST.

I buy strictly fancy Table Butter, Fresh Eggs and Country Produce generally, for which I pay cash or trade at lowest cash prices. I want everyone to come and see me; all are welcome. If you don't want to buy it will be a pleasure for me to show you the nicest, the cleanest and the best kept store in Northeastern Kentucky. Thanking all again, I am most sincerely, SAW WITH PROPHETIC EYE.

John Milton's Vision of a Free Country and a Free Press.

Methinks I see in my mind a noble and puissant nation rousing herself like a strong man after sleep, and shaking her invincible locks. Methinks I see her as an eagle muing (moulting) her mighty youth, and kindling her undazzled eyes at the full midday beam, purging and unscaling her long abused sight at the fountain itself of heavenly radiance, while the whole noise of timorous and flocking birds, with those also that love the twilight, flutter about, amazed at what she means, and in their envious gabble would prognosticate a year of sects and schisms.

What should ye do then, should ye suppress all this flowery crop of knowledge and new light, sprung up and yet springing daily in this city, should ye set an oligarchy of 20 engrossers over it, to bring a famine upon our minds again, when we shall know nothing but what is measured to us by their bushel? Believe it, lords and commons, they who counsel ye to such a suppressing do as good as bid ye suppress yourselves; and I will soon show how. If it be desired to know the immediate cause of all this free writing and free speaking, there cannot be assigned a truer than your old mild and free and human government; it is the liberty, lords and commons, which your own valorous and happy counsels have purchased us, liberty which is the nurse of all great wits; this is that which rarefied and enlightened our spirits like the influence of heaven; this is that which hath enfranchised, enlarged, and lifted up our apprehensions degrees above themselves. Ye cannot make us now less capable, less strong, less eagerly pursuing of the truth, unless ye first make yourselves, that made us so, less the lovers, less the founders of our true liberty!

We can grow ignorant again, brutish, formal and slavish, as ye found us; but you then must first become that which ye cannot be, oppressive, arbitrary and tyrannous, as they were from whom ye have freed us. That our hearts are now more capacious, our thoughts more erected to the search and expectation of greatest and exactest things, is the issue of your own virtue propagated in us; ye cannot suppress that unless ye reinforce an abrogated and merciless law, that fathers may dispatch at will their own children. * * * Give me the liberty to know, to utter and to argue freely according to conscience, above all liberties.—From John Milton's "Areopagitica."

MOTHERHOOD

The first requisite of a good mother is good health, and the experience of maternity should not be approached without careful physical preparation, as a woman who is in good physical condition transmits to her children the blessings of a good constitution.

Preparation for healthy maternity is accomplished by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, which is made from native roots and herbs, more successfully than by any other medicine because it gives tone and strength to the entire feminine organism, curing displacements, ulceration and inflammation, and the result is less suffering and more children healthy at birth. For more than thirty years has been the standby of American mothers in preparing for childbirth. Notewhats Mrs. James Chester, of 427 W. 35th St., New York says in this letter:—Dear Mrs. Pinkham:—"I wish every expectant mother knew about Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. A neighbor who had learned of its great value at this trying period of a woman's life urged me to try it and I did so, and I cannot say enough in regard to the good it did me. I recovered quickly and am in the best of health now."

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is certainly a successful remedy for the peculiar weaknesses and ailments of women. It has cured almost every form of Female Complaints, Dragging Sensations, Weak Back, Falling and Displacements, Inflammation, Ulcerations and Organic Diseases of Women and is invaluable in preparing for Childbirth and during the Change of Life.

Mrs. Pinkham's Standing Invitation to Women Women suffering from any form of female weakness are invited to write Mrs. Pinkham, at Lynn, Mass. Her advice is free.

INCORPORATED

And Now Ready For Business—
Success Assured

Pursuant to a call of the Chairman the Tobacco Growers' meeting at the Courthouse Saturday was fairly well attended. The object of the call was, among other matters, to hear expressions along lines not definitely understood in regard to the Warehouse Company and its relation to the Board of Control.

Whatever misconception or erroneous idea might have been entertained by stockholder or member of various Unions it was certainly clarified and made clear to their understanding by the lucid explanation set forth by Dr. John A. Reed and Hon. J. N. Kehoe in their talk on the subject.

Before action was taken to increase the number from fifteen to fifty shares, as the maximum any one stockholder can hold, an opportunity was given by the Chairman, to those so desiring, to withdraw his stock before putting the motion to the house, and only one availed himself of the opportunity—Mr. Osborne. The limit is now fifty shares, $500.

The Warehouse Company having been incorporated several days ago is now practically ready to begin business.

The Board of Control and Directors of the Warehouse Company will meet in the County Clerk's office today at 12:30 to complete minor details. The Warehouse Company will also elect officers. The warehouse and principal place of business will be established in this city. The various Maysville Banks will advance money on crops of tobacco and take warehouse receipts for same.

The movement is in the hands of able and wise men, which is a guarantee of its success and safe conduct of its business affairs.

OUR PRIDE IS IN THE WORK HARNESS

Department of our store. By giving special attention to the most minute details we turn out Harness whose longevity rivals that of the Deacon's wonderful one-horse shay, which, as you all know, was so wonderfully constructed that it did not wear out in any one particular place, but, after being used for one hundred years to the minute, went to pieces all at once. Our workmen, being skilled at their work, know, as did the Deacon, that "Tis mighty plain that the weak's place must stand the strainin', 'n the way t' fix it, uz I maintain is only jes' to make that place uz strong uz the rest." We can give you the names of some of our customers to whom we sold work harness when we first went into business, and which is still as good as new. Do you not think this is full value received for every cent invested?

AS IT ACTUALLY WAS.

Herman Schmidt's Simple Description of Heroic Deed.

"That the man who does great deeds can never put his deeds into words is Mr. Kipling's excuse for the professional story teller. Probably had Herman Schmidt the gift of story telling he would not describe his most famous adventure as he does. Herman, who was one of the heroes of the Franco-Prussian war, was asked by some Missionary to tell them how he won the Iron Cross.

"Well," said Herman, slowly, "it was the day they was all Prussian feller-s—was all in der army, soldiers. De French folks was fighting us, and we French folks was fighting us, unde we was fighting dem.

"Then dere was a battlefild—like it was a fild in a farm, yes—all grass and stuff—and ofer dere was de French folks, and ofer here was us Prussian feller-s.

"Always, yet, I was de biggest man in der army, dey make dat I shold carry de flag—de flag dat always goes vere de fighting is.

"So den, dere was our feller-s, unde dere was de French folks, und we was shooting at dem and they was shooting us—only I wasn't make no shooting, because I not dem feller-s and no guns.

"So I says, 'Vat if some of our feller-s would go ofer dere vere de French folks was, vat?' But den I see our feller-s was all shooting and dey wasn't none of dem going ofer; so I says,
'Maybe I goes ofer dere myself, den.'
"So I goes up and goes ofer dere vere de French folks was. Our feller-s always goes vere de flag iss, so den dey also all comes ofer vere de French folks was.

"And den de cheneral comes up and pins dis cross on me."—Youth's Companion.

Two Silly "Smart Sets."

The fast woman in society in France compromises herself because she falls under the spell of passion; the fast woman in society in New York, on the other hand, compromises herself to pay for her bonnets and gowns. In this comparison the French fast woman has much the advantage of the American fast woman. They are both essentially vulgar, judged from the strictly social point of view. The men and women of the fast set always force the note. They overeat, over-drink, overdress and overact their parts. They are to people in really civilized society what sensational journalism is to high-class newspaper work. They represent the "yellow" in morals, dress, manners and style of life. It is a mistake to treat them too seriously. Irony, ridicule and sarcasm are the only weapons that touch them. It is the stupidity of fast society that most impresses itself on other people; the inanity of its invention, its general bad taste.—The Outlook

Definitions in Bohemia.

"Be careful, here comes a grafter," said one as they saw him enter the cafe and glance around over the crowd as if in search of somebody he knew.
"He's not a grafter," said another.
"He's a piker."
"What's the difference?" asked the first.

"A grafter is a man who borrows money," was the answer, "and never pays it back, but a piker is a rung lower on the ladder. He has given up all hope of getting more money, but he'll wait around till you buy him a drink, or he'll take your box of cigarettes when you are not looking and empty half of them into his pocket."

Checks to Flirtation.

"When I went abroad to Baden Baden last summer," said the little invalid, "my husband gave me an Elk pin to wear and my father a Masonic one. They said if there were any Masons or Elks on board ship they would look after me.

"Every blessed man on board was either a Mason or an Elk, and not a one of them would flirt with me on account of those pins.

"You can bet when I sailed for home I put these blooming pins in the trunk and kept them there."

Motive Not Quite Clear.

"So he gave you a dog?"
"Yes," answered the man who can be unkind at times.
"He must like you."
"Well, I'm not sure whether he likes me or whether he doesn't like the dog."—Tory Stories.

Terror's Effect on Hair.

It has been repeatedly affirmed that Queen Marie Antoinette's auburn hair turned white in the days of the reign of terror, and an English surgeon named Parry states that just after the Indian mutiny he actually saw the jet black hair of a rebel Sepoy, who was under examination and feared a dreadful death, turn white in the course of an hour. In the time of the commune in Paris, the dark hair of Baron Alphonse de Rothschild was blanched in a few hours.

Two Negroes are thought to be buried under several carloads of coal, piled up in a wreck on the C. and O. Railroad near Owingsville.

The Triennial Committee of the Protestant Episcopal Church, which meets this year at Jamestown, Va., is uttering a protest against the great naval and military display scheduled to open the Exposition. The Bishops declare the military and naval features are not in harmony with the spirit of the celebration.

A SUGGESTION

While the earth is snowclad and Jack Frost is King it is a very poor time to make repairs on the outside of buildings, but no better time could be selected for repairing the inside. Carpenters are not busy and can give your work closer attention than during the rush incident to springtime. It is also a good time to get your orders booked for planing-mill work. We have quite a lot of orders on our books, and will have many more as soon as the bright days come. GET IN BEFORE THE RUSH.

No Operation

Mrs. Malinda Akers, of Basham, Va., writes:
"I had what doctors call 'prolapse,' and couldn't stand straight. I had pain in my back and shoulders, and was very irregular and profuse.
Doctors said an operation was needed, but I couldn't bear the thought of the knife. After taking three bottles of Wine of Cardui, I could walk around. Can now do my housework and am in splendid health."

Cardui is a pure, vegetable, medicinal essence, especially adapted to cure women's diseases. It relieves excessive periodical pains, regulates irregularities, and is a safe, pleasant and reliable remedy for all sick women. In suc-
